

Would you like to know more about the early church leaders? Would you like to learn more about Lutheran beliefs and creeds? How about understanding our theology and Christian ethics? Perhaps you would want know about the building blocks of a worship service. Or maybe take a look at the books of the New Testament, not as a Bible study but how and where they come from?

Diakonia is a two-year program that provides a system of study to help answer those questions. It includes courses on Theology, Worship, Bible, Church History and Practical Ministry.

Through Diakonia, I experienced the impressive breadth of seminary training our pastors receive while being challenged to grow in faith and service to the church.”
-Twila B.

Students learn from ordained pastors in a cohort setting. They study traditional seminary disciplines, identify their particular gifts, and are encouraged to grow spiritually.

Classes for Diakonia are being offered in Phoenix, Las Vegas, Tucson and Rio Salado (Phoenix East Valley) areas. Diakonia Online offers Zoom classes to enable us to reach the entire Grand Canyon Synod.

Check the website for class dates and times.

Diakonia helps equip God's people for service in the congregation and the neighborhood.

I have been meeting Diakonia students over the last 4 years in three different churches in GCS. I am impressed about how well informed they are about a wide range of Biblical Studies and church history. They also have so much information and passion for reflecting and sharing their faith experiences. This program has inspired a few to go on to advanced academic pursuits with confidence and a higher level of informed participation. Many show a deeper commitment to active Christian service in their respective communities. All have benefitted from having instructors who are actively involved in ministry as well as forming relationships with other students of diverse backgrounds and communities.
